Nature, quoting from the Chemiker-Zeitung, states that the German state grant for the support of scientific, technical and similar undertakings is to be increased by 115,000 Marks. The sum of 179,500 Marks is to be spent upon increasing the accommodation for the permanent exhibition devoted to the interests of the working classes; 120,000 Marks to be a first instalment for investigation of sleeping sickness; 30,000 Marks to be devoted to the development of the Starkstrom laboratory of the Reichsanstalt; 43,850 Marks to be contributed to the kite station on Lake Constance for experimental investigations of the higher air strata.

WE learn from The British Medical Journal that Professor Debove recently presented to the Académie de Médecine, Paris, the report for 1904 of the Scientific Information Bureau. During the year 8,000 persons applied for information as to courses of instruction, laboratories, hospitals, libraries and archives. Fifty-five per cent. of the applicants were foreigners, the countries represented being Great Britain, the United States, Russia, Scandinavia, Italy, Spain, South America, Germany, Japan and China. Sometimes there were from seventy to eighty applicants in one day. The staff of the bureau consists of four persons, and answers to questions can be given in five languages. The members of the bureau are paid by the Municipal Council and the Council of the University. It may be mentioned that the information supplied is by no means confined to matters relating to medicine; replies are given to inquiries as to the French language and literature, the fine arts, industrial physics and chemistry, etc.
